

Kate Amangoulova Earns CFE Credential

Austin, TX – August 31, 2016 — The Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE), the world’s largest anti-fraud organization and leading provider of anti-fraud training and education, is pleased to award Kate Amangoulova, of Langley, BC, the globally preferred Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) credential. In order to become a CFE, Ms. Amangoulova has met a stringent set of criteria and passed a rigorous exam administered by the ACFE.

Ms. Amangoulova has successfully met the ACFE’s character, experience and education requirements for the CFE credential, and has demonstrated knowledge in four areas critical to the fight against fraud: Fraudulent Financial Transactions, Fraud Prevention and Deterrence, Legal Elements of Fraud and Fraud Investigation.

Ms. Amangoulova joins the ranks of business and government professionals worldwide who have also earned the CFE certification. Ms. Amangoulova is currently a partner in Allegro Tax and Accounting Group, LLC in Langley, BC.

CFEs examine data and records to detect and trace fraudulent transactions as well as interview suspects to obtain information and confessions. They write investigation reports and advise clients as to their findings. CFEs have been called as expert witnesses to testify at trial and understand the law as it relates to fraud and fraud investigations. CFEs on six continents have investigated more than 1 million suspected cases of civil and criminal fraud.
